

Formerly Engineering Without Boundaries

INTERNATIONAL PROJECTS

-
- A world map with various colored pins indicating project locations. The pins are clustered in North and South America, with one yellow pin in Africa. A legend on the left lists the projects and their corresponding colors.
- Home Base
 - Las Boquillas '09
 - Ruiz De Ancones '10
 - Hondura Azul '11
 - Herrera Cancha '12
 - Santa Teresa '13
 - Rancho Nuevo II '14
 - Oyanca '15
 - Alamogordo '16
 - El Potrero '17
 - Prospect for 2018

Community Center, Queretaro

Suspended Cable Bridge, Oyanca

30 Foot Well, Ruiz De Ancones

LA SEMILLA
LEARN.GROW.INSPIRE

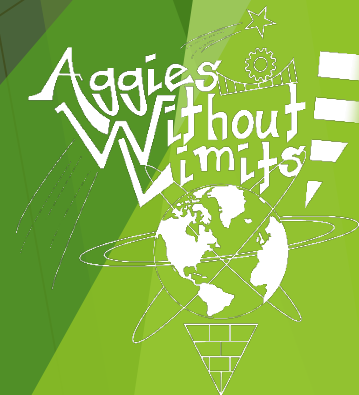

Rainwater Catch System
La Semilla, Vado

Sustainable Housing
Foxhole Homes, Alamogordo

Tent Concrete Pads
Camp Hope, Las Cruces

Name David Castellanos

Position Secretary

Major Mechanical Engineering

Hometown Vado, New Mexico

Could dunk a basketball when he was 1

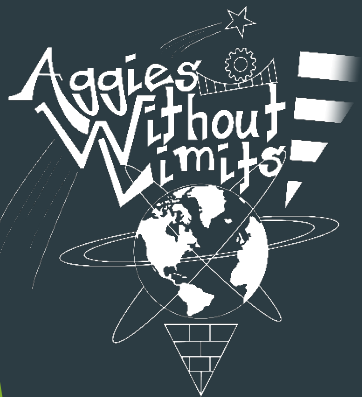

Name Luis Estevez

Position Treasurer

Major Mechanical Engineering Technology (MET)

Hometown Silver City, New Mexico

Has mastered the 5 inch punch

Name Daniel Varela

Position Vice President of Finance

Major MET

Hometown Las Cruces, New Mexico

“There is nothing fun about me”

Name Victor Meraz

Position President

Major MET

Hometown El Paso, Texas

Can rub his belly and pat his head simultaneously

Name Adriana Erives

Position Vice President

Major Civil Engineering

Hometown Santa Fe, New Mexico

Can smell the consistency of the perfect rammed earth mixture

- Members get anywhere from 50-100 hours of community service.
- Members do not receive course credit, do not get grades, and do not profit from work.

- Purely volunteer work because there is a need, a gap that must be filled

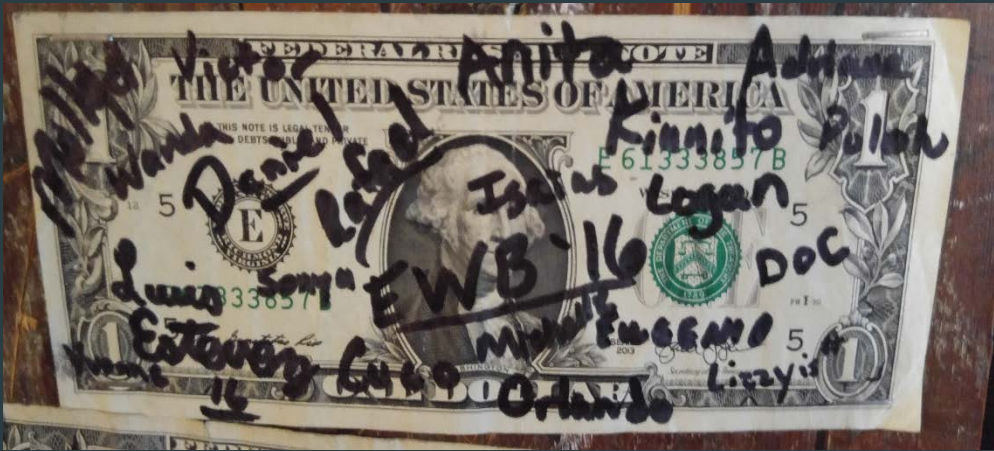

AWL Member Project Contribution:

- Design
- Survey
- Construct
- Budget
- Schedule
- Distance Communication
- Organization Collaboration
- Fundraise

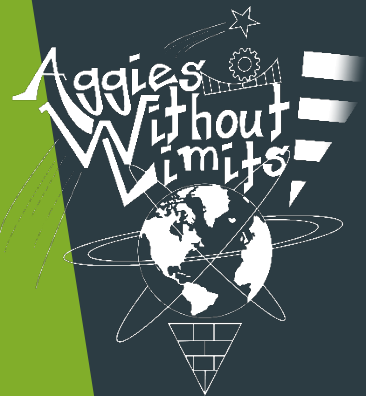

How Can I Help?

- Mentorships
- Sponsorships
- Chain Gangs
- Donations
- Merchandise Purchases
- Annual Banquet

For more information visit our website: aggieswithoutlimits.org

Like us on Facebook and Instagram!

