

Tami R. Parrish

Tami R. Parrish

BETTENDORF — Tami R. Parrish, 56, of Bettendorf passed away unexpectedly on June 18, 2015, at Trinity Bettendorf. According to Tami's wishes, there will be no services. Weerts Funeral Home is assisting the family.

Tami was born in 1958, in El Paso, Texas, to Douglas Hendricks and Barbara Brewster. She received a B.A. in industrial engineering from New Mexico State University in 1992. She has worked as an industrial engineer since 1992, the first 17 years with Intel and the past two years with Alcoa.

Tami loved to read and go shopping. She especially loved to travel around the world. Her family was her biggest joy.

Survivors include her son, Brandon Parrish; grandchildren, Kollin and Embyr Parrish; her father, Douglas Hendricks; stepfather, Roy Brewster; sisters, Shari Roosa and Kari Forester; and nephews, Steven Roosa, Matthew Roosa, Jacob Roosa and Chase Roosa.

She was preceded in death by her son, Trevor; her mother, Barbara Brewster; and grandparents, Herman and Luttie Wade, and Ed and Nova Hendricks.

Online condolences may be expressed to the Parrish family by visiting Tami's obituary at WeertsFH.com.